

HR Insight Workshop - A mini Health Check for HR Teams

Rationale

One of the dilemmas HR teams face is the challenge to be more strategic in their thinking and actions whilst dealing with day to day operational challenges. As an HR Team, do you.....

- Know each other so well that people have become set in their ways and change is difficult to implement?
- Experience conflict because of the pressures that resource constraints and economic pressures cause, but never deal with it?
- Question whether your HR Strategy is truly aligned to the business strategy?

If the answer to any of these questions is 'yes', Level Seven can help.

Target Audience

In-house HR teams including HR Directors, Managers, Business Partners

Duration: 1 day
